

JAMAICA 2017

34th ANNUAL YOGA VACATION WITH BARBARA BENAGH & JOHN SCHUMACHER

course one: February 5-12

course two: February 12-19

Negril is a relaxed resort on the west coast of Jamaica, one of the Caribbean's most beautiful islands. A wonderful place to unwind and restore the soul. Negril is vibrant and brought alive by the people, their music, and a sultry climate that invites a leisurely way of life.

For over 30 years Barbara Benagh and John Schumacher have welcomed students to join them for a week or two of yoga in Negril. The vacation they have created offers students the opportunity to explore in depth two distinctly different approaches to yoga. It is also an occasion for people who enjoy yoga and the exotic rhythm of Jamaica to get together and simply have a good time.

THE TEACHERS

John Schumacher, cited by Yoga Journal as one of "25 Americans who are shaping yoga today", is a pupil of B.K.S. Iyengar and a certified advanced teacher in that method. He is the founder and director of Unity Woods Yoga Center in Bethesda, MD, the nation's largest Iyengar center. John teaches worldwide guiding students to experience the richness that is possible through the practice of yoga.

Described by Yoga Journal as "one of the most intelligent and insightful teachers around", Barbara Benagh's innovative and distinctive slow flow style has evolved from over 40 years of devoted practice. She teaches in the Boston area and travels extensively to lead master workshops. Author of numerous articles about yoga, Barbara is also featured on five DVDs produced by BodyWisdom (bodywisdommedia.com) and live class recordings by Heart of the Moon Media (heartofthemoon.com).
